Divide space

Frontier is a complete range of screens and panels for dividing and structuring your work space.

Bring people together

Straight screen with accessory rail on one side and Gaja Light 0905 fabric on opposite side

Balance privacy and collaboration.

A company is an active and interactive environment where obtaining the right balance between privacy and collaboration is fundamental.

Straight panels (H:1700 mm)

Define territories

Facilitate interaction

Maintain personal space.

People want to have ownership over their work space to feel at ease. Frontier provides them with the means to personalise and organise their territory:

- pinnable panels and screens for privacy.
- built-in accessory rails.
- glass partitions encourage interaction.
